Shoreline Master Program Update

Project Update

The Planning Commission held a public hearing on the proposed Shoreline Master Program on October 21, 2009 and accepted written comments into November. Planning Commission deliberations are on-going. A copy of all the comments received, and a written response to the comments, is available on the project web page at shoreline.rentonwa.gov.

Comments

The Planning Commission is reviewing a revised draft of the SMP. This draft integrates comments received during the public hearing process. Staff and the Planning Commission are interested in public comments on the revised draft. Written comments must be received by 5:00 p.m. on December 30, 2009. Written comments are accepted in standard and electronic forms, but must include your name and mailing address to become part of the official records.

How can I get involved?

Upcoming Meetings

The Planning Commission is deliberating on their recommendation to City Council right now. All meetings take place at 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of City Hall. The next meeting will take place December 16, 2009. Deliberations will likely continue into January. Check the shoreline webpage for specific dates.

Project Schedule

The Planning Commission is scheduled to conclude deliberations in January and forward a recommendation to the City Council. Environmental Review under the State Environmental Policy Act will also be conducted at that time. After City Council adoption the SMP will be forwarded to the Washington State Department of Ecology for review and approval. Ecology's review and approval process includes conducting additional public hearings.
